Father Dimitri's Message

My beloved Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is not goodbye.

I came to the parish of St. Basil in December of 2017, following in the footsteps of beloved clergy Rev. Fr. Chris Kerhulas, who served our community for almost 30 years, and Rev. Fr. Panteleimon, who served for 7 years. Three years and nine months flew by in the blink of an eye.

Nevertheless, this is the life of a priest. Like soldiers of Christ, we move and go where our bishop feels there is a need. In the story of our parish, St. Basil, this is happening at a very exciting period of growth. Coming out of the pandemic, our community has rebounded and begun to expand. I was excited when I saw the future laid out in front of me. Were I a selfish man, I would feel embittered that I am not the priest that gets to take you on that exciting journey of growth. But I remember the words of St. Paul in 2nd Corinthians.

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that plants anything, neither he that waters; but God that gives the increase. Now he that plants and he that waters are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. For we are laborers together with God: you are God's husbandry, you are God's building (2 Corinthians 3:6-9)

In other words, those who came before me and those who will come after me all work in the same manner as I to serve and love you. It is God who produces growth and blessings. The next priest who will continue this great labor of love is Fr. Demetrios Kounavis. We: Fr. Chris, Fr. Panteleimon, Fr. Dimitri, and Fr. Demetrios; are one. Your happiness is our reward and our joy as you deepen your personal relationship with Christ our God.

In my 4 years with you I have felt honored beyond measure. We have seen wonderful heights together. I know that you will continue to experience even greater heights with Fr. Demetrios and may God bless him on his new journey with St. Basil. I came just as you celebrated 90 years as a parish. My successor comes on your 95th year. It is my hope that this auspicious year fills you all with pride, love for one another, and hope for the future of St. Basil.

You will never be far from me in my prayers. I love you, and I reiterate, this is not goodbye, just a new chapter for us both.

Your servant in Christ,

Fr. Dimitri Tobias, Proistamenos

Philoptochos Update

By Nichole Kourvas Drimonas

Hello Everyone,

Philoptochos has a new clothing drive that runs through Sunday, August 1. Please consider donating new or gently used items to this cause.

The Pacific Garden Mission has been providing safe shelter and hot meals to Chicago's homeless, while preaching the Gospel, 365 days a year since 1877.

The mission's New Life program provides participants with tools to rebuild their lives and find permanent housing. Gaining employment is part of this rebuilding. Let's help these men and women by donating new and gently used business casual clothes for interviews for a job that will help lift them out of poverty.

Large and extra-large sizes are most needed, but all sizes are needed and appreciated.

- + Men's sports jackets, suits, dress shirts, neckties
- + Women's blazers, dress blouses, and shirts

Please bring your donation to the Philoptochos Hall at St. Basil no later than Sunday, August 1.

This is our fourth clothing drive for PGM. Your generosity has made a difference for the desperate men and women who turn to them for help.

Stay well and happy summer.
Nichole Kourvas Drimonas
St. Basil Philoptochos President

This year, the stewardship committee has set an additional challenge to our stewards for the 2021 year. We challenge each steward to become a member of at least one ministry of our parish. With so many to choose from, this should be an easy task. If you want to volunteer, we have philanthropy ministries. If you want to get involved in the life of the church, we have ministries for that too. Join us in making our parish more complete by your presence.

St. John the Almsgiver Ministry

By Marina Arvanitis

Throughout the winter months, the St. John the Almsgiver ministry kept a steady supply of winter parkas and fleece blankets ready for anyone who came to our parish doors in need. Thank you to all who generously donated these coats and blankets, and to Nick Katsoulis who lovingly distributed them.

This winter, the ministry also resumed packing Almsgiver packs for our homeless brothers and sisters in need. In addition to the usual winter pack items (a prayer and resource sheet, $10 Jewel-Osco card, winter hat, long underwear, socks, hand and body warmers, water bottle, granola bar, and personal hygiene supplies (comb, toothbrush, toothpaste, Band-Aids), the 2021 winter packs also included Covid-19 personal protective items (N-95 mask and hand-sanitizing wipes). The St. John the Almsgiver ministry sincerely thanks all the St. Basil parishioners and donors who contributed the pack components, as well as all those who distributed the packs. Your generosity is a true inspiration in the spirit of St. John himself.

The ministry will be restocking our AmazonSmile wish list and resuming packing spring-summer Almsgiver packs. If you wish to donate, please keep a lookout for wish list updates, or bring any number of $10 Jewel-Osco cards to the church office. If you wish to help with ministry planning or packing the Almsgiver packs, please contact Marina Arvanitis (marvanitis@uwalumni.com).

July 20 — The Glorious Prophet Elias (Elijah)

Elias of great fame was from Thisbe or Thesbe, a town of Galaad (Gilead), beyond the Jordan. He was of priestly lineage, a man of a solitary and ascetical character, clothed in a mantle of sheep skin, and girded about his loins with a leather belt. His name is interpreted as "Yah is my God." His zeal for the glory of God was compared to fire, and his speech for teaching and rebuke was likened unto a burning lamp. From this too he received the name Zealot. Therefore, set aflame with such zeal, he sternly reproved the impiety and lawlessness of Ahab and his wife Jezebel. He shut up heaven by means of prayer, and it did not rain for three years and six months. Ravens brought him food for his need when, at God's command, he was hiding by the torrent of Horath. He multiplied the little flour and oil of the poor widow of Sarephtha of Sidon, who had given him hospitality in her home, and when her son died, he raised him up. He brought down fire from Heaven upon Mount Carmel, and it burned up the sacrifice offered to God before all the people of Israel, that they might know the truth. At the torrent of Kisson, he slew 450 false prophets and priests who worshipped idols and led the people astray. He received food wondrously at the hand of an Angel, and being strengthened by this food he walked for forty days and forty nights. He beheld God on Mount Horeb, as far as this is possible for human nature. He foretold the destruction of the house of Ahab, and the death of his son Ohozias; and as for the two captains of fifty that were sent by the king, he burned them for their punishment, bringing fire down from Heaven. He divided the flow of the Jordan, and he and his disciple Elisseus passed through as it were on dry land; and finally, while speaking with him, Elias was suddenly snatched away by a fiery chariot in the year 895 B.C., and he ascended as though into heaven, whither God most certainly translated him alive, as He did Enoch (Gen. 5:24; IV Kings 2: 11). But from thence also, after seven years, by means of an epistle he reproached Joram, the son of Josaphat, as it is written: "And there came a message in writing to him from Elias the Prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the way," and so forth (II Chron. 21:12). According to the opinion of the majority of the interpreters, this came to pass either through his disciple Elisseus, or through another Prophet when Elias appeared to them, even as he appeared on Mount Tabor to the disciples of Christ (see Aug. 6).

Apolytikion of Prophet Elias —Fourth Tone

The incarnate Angel, the Cornerstone of the Prophets, the second Forerunner of the Coming of Christ, the glorious Elias (Elijah), who from above, sent down to Elisha the grace to dispel sickness and cleanse lepers, abounds therefore in healing for those who honor him.

Kontakion of Prophet Elias —Second Tone

O Prophet and foreseer of the great works of God, O greatly renowned Elias (Elijah), who by your word held back the clouds of rain, intercede for us to the only Loving One.

July 26 —Feast of the Holy Righteous Martyr Saint Paraskevi

Saint Paraskeve, who was from a certain village near Rome, was born to pious parents, Agatho and Politia. Since she was born on a Friday (in Greek, Paraskeve), she was given this name, which means "preparation" or "preparedness" (compare Matt. 27:62, Mark 15:42, Luke 23:54, and John 19:31, where 'Friday' is called "the day of the preparation"). From childhood she was instructed in the sacred letters and devoted herself to the study of the divine Scriptures, while leading a monastic life and guiding many to the Faith of Christ. During the reign of the Emperor Antoninus Pius, she was apprehended because she was a Christian and was urged to worship the idols, but she answered with the words of Jeremias: "Let the gods that have not made heaven and the earth perish from off the earth" (Jer. 10:11). Because of this she endured exceedingly painful torments, and was beheaded in the year 140. The faithful pray to her for the healing of eye ailments.

Apolytikion of Martyr Paraskeve —First Tone

Appropriate to your calling, O Champion Paraskevi, you worshipped with the readiness your name bears. For an abode you obtained faith, which is your namesake. Wherefore, you pour forth healing and intercede for our souls.

July 27 — Feast of the Great Martyr and Healer Saint Panteleimon

This Saint, who had Nicomedia as his homeland, was the son of Eustorgius and Eubula. His father was an idolater, but his mother was a Christian from her ancestors. It was through her that he was instructed in piety, and still later, he was catechized in the Faith of Christ by Saint Hermolaus (see July 26) and baptized by him. Being proficient in the physician's vocation, he practiced it in a philanthropic manner, healing every illness more by the grace of Christ than by medicines. Thus, although his parents had named him Pantoleon ("in all things a lion"), because of the compassion he showed for the souls and bodies of all, he was worthily renamed Panteleimon, meaning "all-merciful." On one occasion, when he restored the sight of a certain blind man by calling on the Divine Name, he enlightened also the eyes of this man's soul to the knowledge of the truth. This also became the cause for the martyrdom of him who had been blind, since when he was asked by whom and in what manner his eyes had been opened, in imitation of that blind man of the Gospel he confessed with boldness both who the physician was and the manner of his healing. For this he was put to death immediately. Panteleimon was arrested also, and having endured many wounds, he was finally beheaded in the year 305, during the reign of Maximian. Saint Panteleimon is one of the Holy Unmercenaries, and is held in special honor among them, even as Saint George is among the Martyrs.

Apolytikion of Great Martyr Panteleimon—Third Tone

Panteleimon, saintly champion and healer, intercede with our merciful God to grant our souls remission of sins.

Kontakion of Great Martyr Panteleimon—Plagal of the First Tone

O Champion and Martyr of God, imitating the Merciful and bearing from Him the grace of healing, cure our spiritual ills by your prayers, and set free from the temptation of the eternal enemy those who ceaselessly cry out, "Save us, O Lord."

July 28 — Irene the Righteous of Chrysovalantou

Saint Irene, who was from Cappadocia, flourished in the ninth century. Because of her great beauty and virtue, she was brought to Constantinople as a prospective bride for the young Emperor Michael (842-867); however, as Saint Joannicius the Great foretold, it was God's will that she assume the monastic habit instead. She shone forth in great ascetical labours, and suffered many attacks from the demons; while yet a novice, she attained to the practice of Saint Arsenius the Great, of praying the whole night long with arms stretched out towards Heaven (see May 8). God showed forth great signs and wonders in her, and she became the Abbess of the Convent of Chrysovalantou. She was granted the gift of clairvoyance and knew the thoughts of all that came to her. She appeared in a vision to the king and rebuked him for unjustly imprisoning a nobleman who had been falsely accused. Through a sailor from Patmos to whom he had appeared, Saint John the Evangelist sent her fragrant and wondrous apples from Paradise. She reposed at the age of 103, still retaining the youthful beauty of her countenance. After her repose, marvelous healings beyond number have been wrought by her to the present day.

Apolytikion of Irene Chrysovalantou —Plagal of the First Tone

Not a temporal kingdom on earth didst thou obtain, but Christ, thy most comely Bridegroom, vouchsafed thee heavenly crowns, and thou reignest as a queen with Him eternally; for thou didst dedicate thyself unto Him with all thy soul, O Irene, our righteous Mother, thou boast of Chrysovalantou, and mighty help of all the Orthodox.

Kontakion of Irene Chrysovalantou—Third Tone

Leaving all the world behind with its impermanent glory, thou wast wedded unto Christ, the King immortal and holy, bringing Him as precious dowry thy maiden beauty and thy trophies won through abstinence over demons. O Irene, our righteous Mother, entreat thy Bridegroom to show His mercy to us.to us.
